OKAY, HONESTLY?

THAT WASNOT RIGHT WINTER WAS SO DILUTED HE WAS PRACTICALLY A PEAR OF JUST SARCASM HE DID NOT EBEM GET TO KNOW WHAT HAPPENED BECAUSE THE OTHER S I WHERE TH:OE SO STUPID HE WAS JUST PUSHED ASIDE LIKE HE WAS NOTHNF BECAUSE HE WAS VOIUKED DIWB TI ABGRT SARCASN AB DNIIBS DEWWKUBG A FXNW IYR ID NIWEHER

Okay that was me tryign to frantically write with my eyes closed while crying

Aoliogies if my spelling is weird but when I'm in grief or pure rage my hands shake, and I am currently experiencing both Because ???

Winter was a good character. He had layers, meanings, motivations, and I loved him.

Then Darkness of Dragons happened.

Winter became a terrible character. He was boiled down to 'SARCASM ANGRY ANGRY SHOUTY'. He was only used because Tui felt like she had to 'wrap up' his plot. She did not wrap it up. She decided he cost to much and replaced him with a cheaper, easier version then forgot about him and awkwardly put paper towels around him. He was not Winter. He was weird IceWing I've never seen before. All the good in him was gone, but y'know what was the worst? THEY DIDN'T EVEN TELL HIM WHAT HAPPENED! HE'S A PART OF YOUR WINGLET! HE EVEN HAD HIS OWN FLIPPIN BOOK! WHY DOES HE NOT DESERvE TO KNOW? HE USED TO BE A GOOD CHARCTER UNTIL THE BOOK REPLACED HIM WITH AN ICEWING THAT IS DEFINITELY NOT MY WINTER.

And don't even get me STARTED on the love triangle. Basically, Tui randomly decided she preferred Moonbli, so she crammed anger and shouting down Winter's throat, used cheap glue she bought at walmart to stick Qibli and Moon together, then for good measure waved her magic fairy wand to teleport Winter away, Where APPARENTly HE SHOULD BE, HUH? APPARENTLY HE IS NO LONGER A GOOD CHARACTER WHO DESERVES BETTER THAN TO BE SHOVED ASIDE.

As you can see i'm having a tough time keeping it together. I have punched the wall approximately five times, defaced my sister's bedroom door, stomped around, and cried on my dog's shoulder.

But that's not all my complaints. 'Wrapping up', they say. That's why it's longer, they say.

The reason why it's longer is Tui felt the need to awkwardly stick in Moonbli 'moments' so they'd have a base, even if that base is a second grader's pile of cardboard and sticks they found in their backyard. That epilogue, the one meant to wrap up the Jade Winglet's stories?

It wrapped up the stories of the weird off-brand Jade Winglet you can buy at the cashier at your local grocery store. WHY were the rest of the JW not invited to meet Jerboa? WHAT HPAPENED TO UMBER?

My dog is my only friend now

im... i dont know what to say the only reason i thout moonbli was oging to win was because i honestly thought tui was going to kill winter, maybe because he jumped in the way of a sword or a spell of something to save her life i honestly was also a little miffed by the way it turned out.

but i believe that speelsbroke winters head or something

and stuff happened

Even is the spell did break Winter's head, it would have been fixed once Qibli got the earring on him. So this was just really bad work with his story

Looking back on it even if I dislike the book I have to admit I came up with some good metaphors in my rage

Anyways, I've come to terms with my anger and decided Winter's actions were because of side-effects of Darkie's spell, Moon and Qibli soon after realized they did not work, and then Moon and Winter lived happily in Sanctuary

But still. The barrier 'tingle' Turtle felt was completely trashed. I love Peacemaker as much as the next guy, but that ending was not satisfactory. And the book TRIED to pull off the 'Legends backstory' thing like Talons of Power had, but Talons of Power did it far better. Darkie deserved a better story, too.

I like Peacemaker's CHARACTER, but not him as the resolution to Darkie. I guess Tui built this up so much, that the way it was so anti-climactic kinda ruined it.

But basically: Love Peacemaker's character. Hate Peacemaker as the resolution.

I have massive mixed feelings about everything in this book.

Pros:
ANEMONE x TAMARIN FTW
Smolder x Thorn
Mystery Tribes!!!!

Cons:

Moonbli (nothing particularly bad about Moonbli but horribly executed)
NOT WINTERWATCHER (This was like the only option here)
Winter got over it so quickly???? What Completely anticlimactic in every way
Major disappointment (I was getting some major Qinter vibes but nope)
Turtljou in general

I agree, Winter's plot was terribly done and he deserved better. Qibli could've gotten over losing Moon. It would've been good development for him and also made Umbli possible. There is NO WAY Winter would've gotten over that so quickly.

I loved the Qinter vibes honestly, until they became Moonbli vibes... I ship Qinterwatcher but SERIOUSLY MAYBE MOON DIDNT LIKE EITHER OF THEM SO SHE HOOKED UP WITH ~~PIKE~~ SOME RANDOM RAINWING AND LEFT THEM BOTH BEHIND I WOULD ENJOY THAT MORE
And I dont like Winter with the Talons of Peace... He just... No. No no no. No. No. And I seriously thought for a second Winterjou would happen but NOOP.
Also my friend asked me if Tui was being illegal when she mentioned Qinter in a kind of not really joking way and I almost screamed.
But Anemone and Tamarin! I dont think Pike ever liked Tamarin, but Anemone told him about her crush and he became protective of Tamarin on the princess' behalf.
And all these hybrid ships... AGH, WHY CANT THERE JUST BE NORMAL DRAGONS, EVENTUALLY HYBRIDS WILL JUST BE THEIR OWN TRIBE AND RULE PYRRHIA BECAUSE THERES TOO MANY.

Okay I'll stop rambling :3

So I agree with [most of] this. I do think the book was very good, but a lot of things were either disappointing (Moonbli, Winter's ending and some of his characterization) or anticlimactic (Darkstalker's ending, he should have just been killed)

Winter definitely deserved more than this. His character seemed to have changed from previous books to this book? And I don't mean the spell he was put under. When he got the earring, the spell was completely gone from his head. But his personality at that point vs him in his book was different. Personality's tend to not change so drastically over the course of 2-3 weeks, so his personality change miffed me, to say the least. Sure, Winter had a short temper, but was it ever as short as it was when he was with Moon?? I feel like his character was changed like this just so Moonbli could happen, because Moonbli didn't have a lot of ship fuel to start with. Most of the fuel was put in DoD at some awkward moments, so it didn't do much to change my opinions on Moonbli. And then I got to the epilogue and I thought, maybe Winterwatcher has a chance still. And then I read that Winter is off building a scavenger sanctuary in a new town with the Talons of Peace. He wrote letters to his winglet like normal, he still considers Qibli his friend, and he just sorta shrugged at Kinkajou's idea to visit Moon. How did he let it go that quickly?? Most people don't usually handle things like that too well.

Ok next Darkstalker could have, you know, died? I felt like maybe even an important character would die while killing Darkstalker. Nope. Darkstalker doesn't even die. He gets another chance. Sure, he doesn't remember that he was Darkstalker, sure, he's a dragonet now with no powers. But killing him could have added more to the story. Finding a way to remove his magic on his scales. The awkward Moonbli ship fuel could have been replaced with something interesting like that. But they just use a few scraps of paper and a strawberry to turn him into a dragonet. It was a bit anticlimactic (aka very anticlimactic)

Otherwise this was a very good book.

Errrgh, I really love WoF and I really love Tui, but whenever I think about Darkness of Dragons my stomach starts to hurt because of how disappointed I am. I really wish there had been some point where Qibli did something wrong or bad, because there were so many opportunities for him to have done something wrong or bad, and I know there was a lot to wrap up in Book 10 and there wasn't a lot of time to add something else to the mix, but it made it feel like Qibli had no depth or development. I don't know how to deal with how bizarrely Winter was written; I actually thought he was still under the spell for the whole book. I'm kind of glad Winter ended up without a relationship, even though I don't ship Moonbli. I was really disappointed with the entire final battle, and the "talons of power", and above all else PEACEMAKER, my ARCHNEMESIS, who has made me lose so much sleep with disappointment and annoyance and anger. When I read it I felt like I was the one being warped into a powerless dragonet. And why is he a RainWing hybrid? What the heck? What the heck?????????

I'm super happy about Anemone and Tamarin, though. Probably not as excited as I should be about the lost continent but it's something to think about I guess.

Winter was just... oof, and Qibli turned from friendly goofy neighbor to tragic perfect gary stu who resolves problems he's had with no development.

Oh well, the 3rd arc so far is awesome.
